NO. 24.

TO CUT RED TAPE TO HELP HICKMAN

River's Encroachments Subject of Insistent Appeal.

The subjoined article was sent from Washington, D. C., to the Louisville Courier-Journal by their special correspondent at that city. It is pleasing to note that our needs are attracting attention in quarters where it will do the most good. We now believe we will obtain relief sooner than our belief justified, for it seems the slotful system usually adopted in instances of river needs is to be absent here and that red tape will be cut summarily. The article follows:

Washington, Nov. 15.—Governmental agencies took action today in an effort to wrest from Governmental red tape a solution for an unusual problem—that of a city, whose prosperity faces danger of being washed literally into the Mississippi River within a short time. The city is Hickman, Ky.

Almost frantic appeals from every official, civic and commercial leader of Hickman brought results today when it was announced that the entire Mississippi River Commission would hold a hearing there November 18 with a view to emergency action.

This action would be in the direction of temporary government of the river bank around West Hickman, which, due to the changing of the river's current and its terrible action upon the shore, is described as menacing not only life and property but the whole welfare of the community.

Whole Town Menaced.

At the same time, Senator A. O. Stanley, on his arrival here, held conferences with members of the commission, emphasized the seriousness of the situation and left tonight for Hickman to make a personal survey. He will appear before the commission when the hearing is held there Saturday.

Mr. Stanley described Hickman's plight as one in which the whole of West Hickman, containing the city's principal old and new industries, as well as dwellings, schools and churches, was in danger of dropping into the river within a short time. He announced his purpose to introduce a bill at the coming session of Congress authorizing the $250,000 expenditure declared by engineers to be necessary for the permanent revetment of the bank. Meanwhile, citizens of Hickman say, some temporary measures must be taken before high water comes, to save the town. Engineers acting for the Mississippi River Commission already have visited Hickman for the purpose of surveying conditions. They are said to have agreed that the fears of the people are well founded and have made the estimate of $250,000 as to the needed outlay. Members of the commission have explained that their authority does not extend to problems other than those of navigation, that funds are not available for such relief work but that perhaps something can be done as an emergency measure.

Levees Change Current.

They are going ahead with plans for the hearing to determine if their authority can be extended to cover the problem.

Telegrams received here indicate that the changing of the river's current around Mill's Point is due to levee construction on the Missouri side in that vicinity. The current has been changed to such an extent that its full force at the river's bend strikes at West Hickman. What is known as No. 6 Island, which had acted as a break water, has been in large part obliterated by the action of the water.

Some of the telegrams received from Hickman citizens follow:

"Property will depreciate in value fifty per cent throughout Hickman."

C. G. Schenker.

"New schools are being built at a cost of $50,000 for which there will never be a need unless relief is granted."

H. C. Helm, chairman of Hickman School Board.

Hours of Distress.

"Sustenance of the city depends on it."

—Andrew Townsend Post, American Legion.

"If the town of Hickman is permitted to be destroyed by the Mississippi River, 3,000 people will be thrown out of employment and hundreds of thousands of dollars' worth of property will be destroyed."

J. W. Cowgill, bank president.

Even worse possibilities are suggested in many other telegrams, which speak of "Hickman's hour of distress," describe relief at once as "the only salvation" and seek to show that the financial, wholesale, retail and industrial activity of the city will be checked. Some of these telegrams came from C. L. Walker, chairman of the Board of Trade; Gaudier Johnson, Postmaster; Charles Nugent, County Judge; J. O. West, Sheriff; B. J. Stahr, former County Judge and others.

Senator Reed of Missouri also has been appealed to for aid.

RUBY JUDGE BURIED HERE.

Ruby Judge, former resident of Hickman, and known to all the older residents of this city, died Saturday at the home of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Fred St. John, in New Madrid, Mo., death resulting from leakage of the heart, from which he had been suffering for the past two years. The remains were brought here Sunday morning, driving through from New Madrid, and were taken to the home of his cousin, W. J. Barry, in Southern Heights with funeral services at ten o'clock on Monday morning at the Catholic Church and were conducted by Father O'Sullivan, of Mayfield.

Mr. Judge was 41 years old, was born and reared in this city, was the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Judge, and resided in Hickman until he was about 22 years old. The family then moved to New Madrid where he resided for a number of years, but for the past ten years had resided at Sikeston, Mo. Although he had been in bad health for sometime he was able to be up and about until the week previous to his death, his sister-in-law, Mrs. St. John, going to Sikeston on Tuesday and taking him to her home in New Madrid, he living only until Saturday after reaching New Madrid. Mr. Judge was known to many Hickman people and had many friends here and at New Madrid and Sikeston. He was unmarried.

Besides a number of cousins, he is survived by only one immediate member of his family, one brother, W. J. Judge, who was a major in the World War and who is now stationed in the West Indies.

The out-of-town relatives attending the funeral here were Mr. and Mrs. Fred St. John of New Madrid, Hugh Barry of Clarksville, Miss., John Barry of St. Louis and Mrs. Mamie Judge Yeizer of Paducah.

Sheriff J. O. West is making a drive for taxes. To more forcibly remind the taxpayers that time is getting short he had notices printed Saturday on the reddest of red cardboard exhorting the taxpayers to get in the clear before the penalty goes on December 1. The penalty is nothing trifling either.

Mrs. S. D. Stenbridge, Mrs. E. C. Johnson and Mrs. R. B. Johnson will be glad to have you on the hill. And your Christmas needs be glad to fill. Don't forget we are expecting you at 503 Troy Avenue, November 22nd, 1922.

Mrs. J. L. May and son, Audrey, of Nashville, arrived here Sunday to visit Mrs. W. S. Swift, returning to Nashville Tuesday.

BIG CROWD SATURDAY.

Last Saturday saw a big crowd in Hickman. This is news to those who were not here—not those who were, for the latter know.

It was Armistice day and a business day par excellence. Acting as impresario over things in general, Rayburn Rose had a photographer on hand at 10:30 to take a picture of the large crowd that was milling around on Clinton street, and if you were not there when the scene was shot, you are simply not in it, that's all.

The banks were kept pretty busy for several hours of money through the wickets in the course of the day and good use was made of it, too. Saturday represented one of the high marks in the Trade in Hickman campaign, and in commemoration of the event many people found themselves in possession of substantial gratuities. The more or less mysterious misspelled circular, which wound itself around the thick tanks of many hundreds of people, was cleared up, and several people extracted much happiness out of it.

FULLER-M'BRIDE

Miss Ethel McBride and Richard Fuller, both residents of West Hickman, were quietly married on Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Greer, in West Hickman.

Beverly Hart of Memphis, is buying lint cotton in this section.

WILLIAMS-HUITT.

Miss Ollis Huitt and Helen Williams, both of this city, were quietly married at Union City, Tenn., Saturday, returning here immediately and going to Ridgely, Tenn., to visit relatives. The bride formerly lived at Ridgely, Tenn., but has resided here for the past three years or more and is well known to many people here. She has been working for the Mengel Company. The groom was born here and reared just south of town and is well known.

Frank Crutchfield, of Hollow Rock, spent a few days at home this week.

And Kansas has a Democratic governor now. That's about as common as a Republican governor in Tennessee.

General Francisco Murguía has been executed down in Old Mexico. He was caught asleep in a church. He was not killed, however, for going to sleep in a church. He had begun to snore.

Thomas Edison is, launching out. He now has a scheme to make the government a great midgetman, to fix commodity prices and wishes to enact remedial legislation along that line. After going into his scheme usually we are more than ever convinced that, as an economist, Thomas A. Edison is the greatest electrical wizard of the age.

Woodrow Wilson has gained much encouragement from the last election. He interprets it as a revolution of feeling toward his great dream of world co-operation—a straw that shows the people are veering to his ideas. We think he is justified in it. The condition of the world shows we have gone at things wrong in this country. Mr. Wilson is not really old. He may yet live to see the world knit together in bonds of understanding and peace. We sincerely hope so.

JIM REED OF MISSOURI

Regardless of what opinion one may hold of his views, all good sportsmen will take off their hats to Jim Reed of Missouri.

Opposed by a bright young lawyer of Kansas City, an editor who took Reed's own style and fought him with it, and aided and abetted by campaign funds of Republican money and the organization of the Republican party; opposed by a bloc of leading and prominent Democrats, who used every means to compass his defeat; opposed by practically every influential metropolitan daily paper; opposed by the powerful Anti-Saloon League, whose ramifications reach into every precinct; opposed by the W. C. T. U. as a body, waving party lines; opposed by women's organizations of all kinds, yet he won.

Nobody but Jim Reed could do this in Missouri.

Nobody but Jim Reed could do this anywhere.

When this man (who gains his friends from the enemies he makes) enters a political campaign there are really no issues involved. It isn't thrift, bonus, taxes, or anything. It's simply Jim Reed. He's the issue, and the fight

WHEN TRANSPORTATION COUNTS

Then it is that THE NASHVILLE, CHATTANOOGA & ST. LOUIS RAILWAY, with its seventy year record of service, may be counted on.

Since July 1, 1922, in a time of transportation difficulties, the Railway has moved more than 100,000 car loads of freight a total distance of more than thirty million car miles.

Without this service 43,000 cars of farm and livestock products would have remained on the producer's hands; 23,000 cars of manufactured articles would not have been delivered to merchants and consumers; 17,000 cars of mining products would have stayed in the ground and 10,000 cars of forest products in the woods and at the mills, while hundreds of thousands of pieces of less than car load freight, shipped in several thousand package cars, would not have moved.

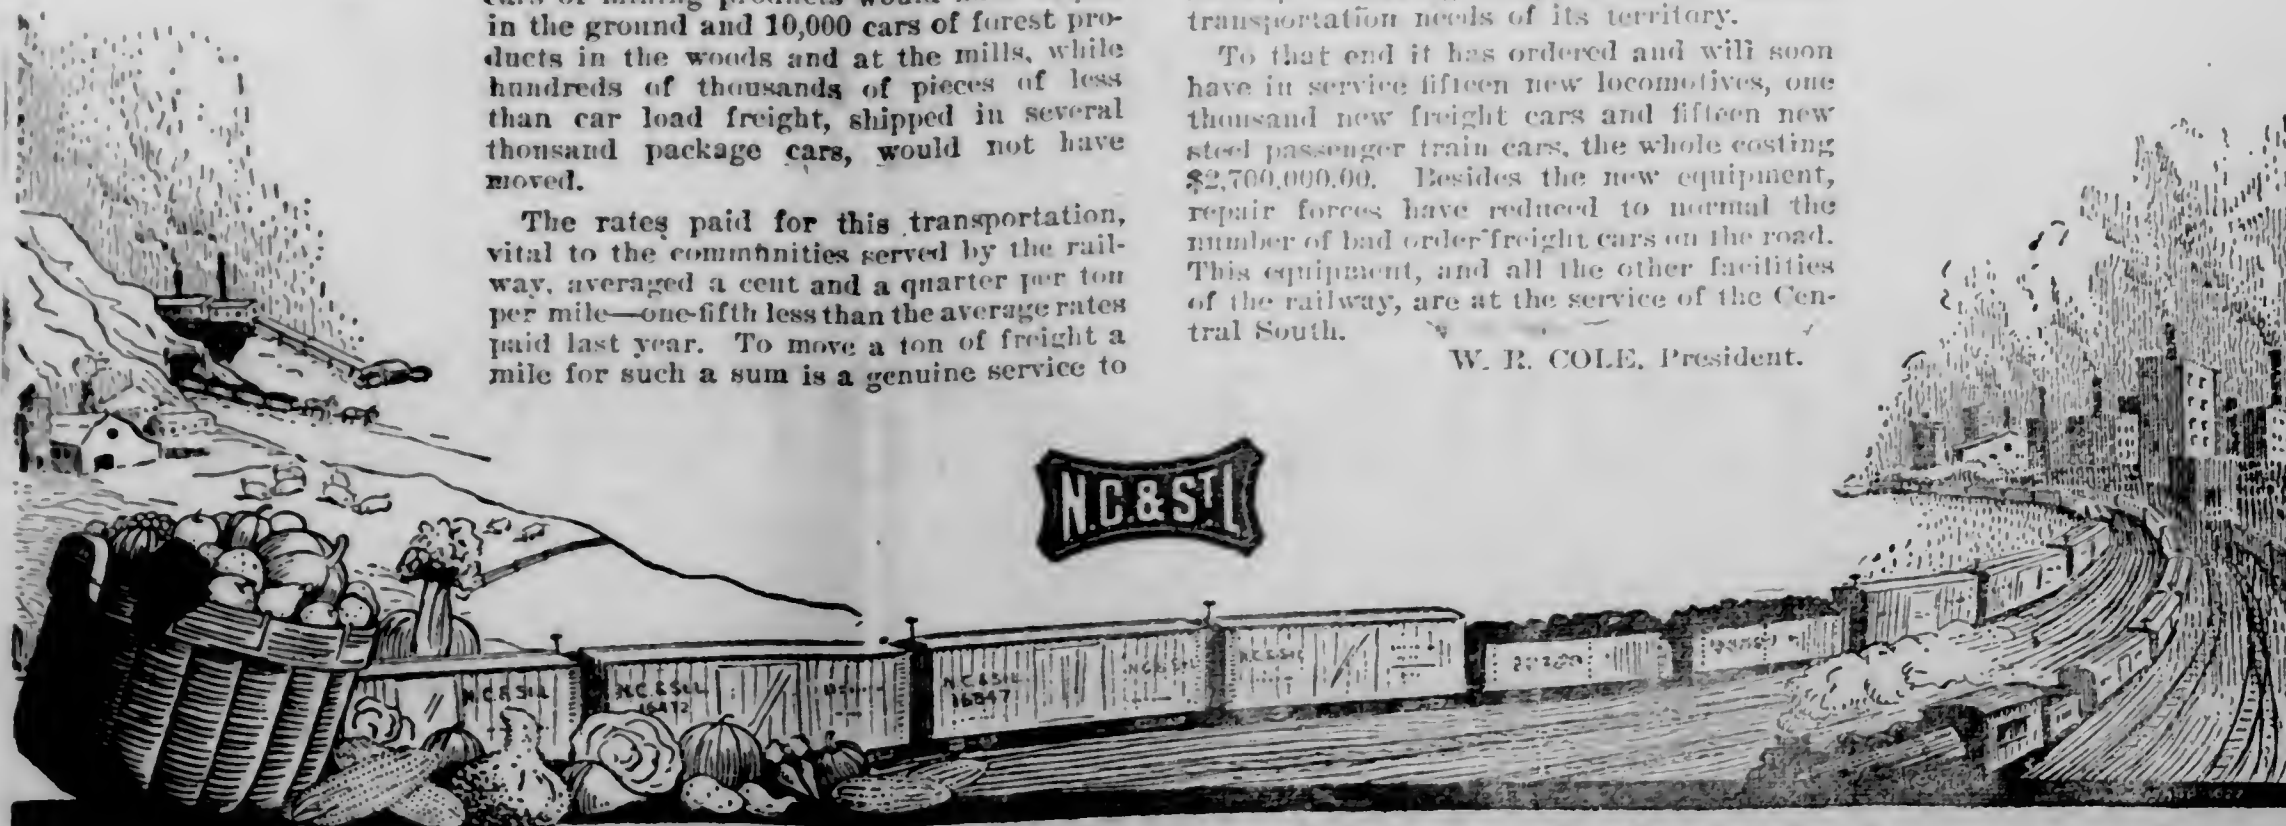

The rates paid for this transportation, vital to the communities served by the railway, averaged a cent and a quarter per ton per mile—one-fifth less than the average rates paid last year. To move a ton of freight a mile for such a sum is a genuine service to the farming, industrial and business life of our section.

Proud of its record during the past four months and realizing the severe demands that will be made upon it this winter, the railway is making every effort to meet the transportation needs of its territory.

To that end it has ordered and will soon have in service fifteen new locomotives, one thousand new freight cars and fifteen new steel passenger train cars, the whole costing $2,700,000.00. Besides the new equipment, repair forces have been reduced to normal the number of bad order freight cars on the road. This equipment, and all the other facilities of the railway, are at the service of the Central South.

UNION CITY GETS SHOE FACTORY.

As the result of a whirlwind campaign Union City citizens chipped in to the extent of $100,000 to induce the Brown Shoe Co. to install a factory there. The factory guarantees a certain steady minimum payroll, which is a good provision. We congratulate our sister city on the successful termination of their campaign to secure the new industry.

3. Only words which are found in the English Dictionary will be counted. Compound, hyphenated and obsolete words will be counted as errors. If the singular of a word is used the plural cannot be counted and vice versa. Words of the same spelling can be used only once, even though used to designate different objects. The same object can be named only once, although any part of the object can also be named. Where more than one word is equally applicable to the picture, any one of them will count.
4. The person sending in the largest and nearest correct list of words beginning with the letter "C," naming objects shown in the picture, will win First Prize; second nearest, Second Prize, etc. One point will be given for each correct word sent in and one point deducted for each incorrect word or omission. Neatness, style or handwriting will have no bearing upon the deciding of the winners.
5. All answers will receive the same consideration regardless of whether or not a subscription is sent in.
6. Persons may work together in preparing their list but only one prize will be awarded to any one household. Nor will more than one prize be awarded to any group outside of the family where two or more have been working together.
7. In the event of a tie for any prize offered, the full amount of such prize will be paid to each person so tied. The correct list will be made up of correct words submitted by contestants, and will not consist of any "master" or "predetermined" list.
8. Three well known citizens of Memphis, having no connection with The Commercial Appeal, will act as judges. They will use as their authority Webster's New International Dictionary, and contestants agree to accept their decision as final and conclusive.
9. These judges will meet directly following the close of the puzzle game, and the names of the Prize Winners and the winning list of words together with the correct list will be published in The Commercial Appeal just as quickly thereafter as the judges can complete the checking.

PECAN CROP SHORT

The pecan crop this year in this section is not more than a half crop and as a result, they are selling at the highest prices ever known here. The crop across the river from here seems to be very good in certain localities. The crop last year was tremendous and is almost nearly a source of quite a large income to those who are fortunate enough to have pecan trees on their farms or in their wooded lands. This is one crop that is uncultivated but always remunerative. Pecans this fall are retailing for 25, 30 and 35 cents a pound. Ten years ago fifteen cents a pound was a tremendous price, and many good ones sold for 10 cents. Even though the crop is not an average one this year, the high price they are bringing will bring in a good sum to the owners of trees.

Improved Automobile Timer.

On a certain popular light automobile the standard timer in connection with the motor has four wires, two of which, being next to the fan belt, are soon damaged by it. In order to avoid this, a new timer has been brought out that has only two wires on the side, and that is away from the belt.—Popular Mechanics Magazine.

A New Religion.

A new theology in England called the Mystic Evolution Society of Ealing contends that creation is controlled by 21 psychic forces, and that all matter was created out of light. The members of the society declare that they are able to fix the wave lengths of all the different elements in the proportion of light.

Motor Fuel From Weeds.

Prof. Malthe Tonhouse believes that thousands of common weeds can be made to yield petrol containing large percentages of benzene and toluene. His process also produces a gas said to have developed 20,000 heat calories, which alone would pay for the necessary plant installation. — Scientific American.

U. D. C. MEETING

The Daughters of Confederacy, Private Robert Tyler Chapter, held an interesting meeting on Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 at the home of Mrs. Maggie Randle. The program of the meeting was devoted to Gen. Robert E. Lee, this being the general subject for the U. D. C. during November. A graphic and interesting article on the life of General Lee from the Veteran was read by Mrs. D. R. Kerlin, and a poem on General Lee was read by Mrs. Jessie Dillon. A beautiful solo, "Pale Moon" was rendered by Miss Marguerite Finqua. Several interesting items were given by Mrs. Randle. After the business session and program, a social session was enjoyed, during which excellent refreshments consisting of salad, sandwiches and coffee, were served.

May Be New Gold Discovery.

An old gold miner who has just come from the gold claims on the Red Deer river, about 30 miles from Red Deer, says that there are now about a thousand claims staked along the river and there is much talk of big developments. Several samples of gravel have been tested out, and fairly good showings obtained, which are considered sufficient to warrant further development, although it is generally felt that the gravel will be more likely to pay through its platinum content, than through the gold recovered from the assays. The gold so far recovered is light in quantity, and assays are being sent to Philadelphia, New Jersey and Spokane for testing.—Montreal Family Herald.

Wanted Proof.

Aunt Mary was writing letters when seven-year-old Paul came into the room and wished to sit on her lap. She said she was too busy right then to take him, but if he would sit down on the other side of the table she would love from there.

"Distance lends enchantment," she quoted.

For a few minutes Paul sat there and watched her. Then he said in a dramatic tone: "You're not doing it at all, I don't see any love letters coming this way."

Undying Songs.

"There are songs," said the musician, "that have never, never died. They go ringing down the ages." "That is true, sir," Brown replied. "For the past six months and upward I have heard my daughter try to kill two or three each evening, but they never, never die."—London Tit-Bits.

Bones of Dante.

At the close of the Dante celebrations at Ravenna, fragments of the bones of the poet, stolen in 1875 but later recovered, were reinterred in the skeleton.

A Tip to the Wise.

It was the beginning of the second semester, and we were to have a new instructor in the English department. I rushed into the classroom and, seeing a supposed fellow student in one of the seats, said: "Well, I guess we'll have to give the old girl a good welcome this morning, but he rather dumb so she won't expect too much." In a moment the young woman began calling the roll, proving to be the instructor herself.—Chicago Tribune.

A Spoonful of Purity

One uses so little baking powder in comparison with the other materials used in baking that it always pays to use the best.

For making the finest and most wholesome food there is no substitute for ROYAL Baking Powder. It is made from Cream of Tartar derived from grapes and is absolutely pure.

EVANGELISTIC MEETING AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

On account of unforeseen conditions A. P. Gray will not preach for the Christian Church during the revival to begin Sunday morning. E. P. Baker, minister of the First Christian Church of Union City, has consented to fill the engagement. Rev. Baker was asked to conduct these services before definite arrangements were made, but declined on account of the great amount of work he had on hand. He is not a second choice as he was at first desired and the church feels gratified that the first arrangements can be carried out. Mr. Baker is a strong and convincing preacher with years of experience and a personality unequalled by most preachers.

ers. His glowing, pleasing, happy optimism is contagious and all seem happy around him. Miss Elliott with Mr. Baker will begin Sunday morning and a successful meeting is anticipated.

PRIZES AWARDED IN

ESSAY CONTEST

An essay contest was put on in the High School and Graded Schools a few weeks ago which was promoted and outlined by G. S. McCarter (representing the Metropolitan Life Ins. Co.) The object of which was to promote better health and welfare conditions in Hickman. The contest was a great success in every respect by the able cooperation of the teachers and pupils, and about 700 essays were turned in.

Mr. McCarter in his address at chapel exercises, commended the contestants very highly and stressed the idea of better health conditions, referring to this as being a great week throughout the United States against the menace of cancer and presenting the students with some valuable pamphlets on cancer as being preventable and curable.

Gov. Milley presented the prizes in a very impressive way and assuring those who didn't win 1st, 2nd, or 3rd prizes, had been well rewarded in their knowledge gained through their efforts in the contest. He commended Mr. McCarter very highly for his great health campaign here and the teachers and students for cooperating with him.

The final grading of the essays was made by W. C. Reed and his able assistants at Jackson, Tenn. Mr. Reed in a letter to Mr. McCarter, says: "We advise that all the papers submitted are so commendable that it has been very difficult indeed for us to select one better than the other. All of the papers are most interesting and instructive."

The prizes were awarded as follows: High School—1st prize $7.00 in gold, Miss Frances Johnson, 2nd $2.50 in gold, Miss Mildred Fowler, 3rd $1.50 in silver, Miss Annie Margaret Atkins.

Graded School—1st prize, Miss Virginia Wright, 7th grade, set welfare books; 2nd, Miss Thelma Tolls, 5th grade $1.00 in silver, 3rd, Wilson Randle, 7th grade $1.00 in silver. Wilson is to be congratulated as being the only boy who won a prize.

Below we publish the essays which won first prize in the High School and Graded School:

It Pays to Keep Folks Well.

By Frances Johnson, 9th grade.
The world is just beginning to realize how very much it pays to keep folks well.

This fact is proven in that three hundred forty-one thousand happy people in the United States and Canada set down last year to their Christmas dinner who wouldn't have been there if the death rate in 1921 had been the same as it was in 1911.

What has happened to make conditions so much better? There has been a constantly growing organized effort to prolong human life.

Anti-tuberculosis associations, welfare organizations, nursing orders and legislative bodies have all taken a hand. The results show that lives have been and can be lengthened by the wise use of money, and that such an investment pays dividends in dollars.

A community suffers a very definite economic loss when it loses a number of lives. It increases the cost of living to leave workers die needlessly. It increases taxes to say nothing of the sorrow and unhappiness involved.

So, as soon as people realize that the wealth of the nation depends upon the men and women who make up the nation, the tremendous financial importance of prolonging human life will become clear to everybody.

How to be Happy and Well.

By Virginia Wright, 7th grade.
How to be happy and well means much more than most people think. To be happy means to be well. For instance, tell me someone who is unhealthy and happy.

Good health requires plenty of air, sunshine, exercise, proper rest, food and clothing. If these rules are not kept you will find neither health nor happiness.

To have proper rest you must retire early. Children under thirteen years of age should have ten hours of sleep.

You should eat slowly in order to digest your food, and have regular times for your meals, eat fruits, vegetables, milk and plenty of hard food. You should wear loose light clothing, but warm enough and shoes that are not too tight.

If you have eight hours of work, eight hours of recreation, and eight hours of sleep it makes a beautiful day. Nature demands it or else you may expect punishment.

We, as civilized people should strive to have a healthy and happy nation. Neither doctors, nurses, wealth nor education alone can bring health. If you will follow the few simple rules I have mentioned above you will be sure to reap your reward, which is health, happiness and a century of life.

There were 62 votes cast for senator in Dorena precinct, across the river, and Jim Reed got 59 of them.

IN THE SHEPHERD'S FIELD

I walked one night in the Shepherd's Field;
The stars in their wonted courses wheeled,
And no new glory the skies revealed—
There was no peace on earth.
But as I climbed the Bethlehem hill
I saw one bend o'er one who was ill
And another bearing coat to him
A neighbor's scanty hearth,
And I knew that Christ was there.

I walked up the mount a little space,
And peered through the shadows for His face.
But found Him not in the pictured place
Beneath the olive trees.

Then turning toward Kidron in the night
I saw the men on their way to fight
In Jordan's hall for a thing called light,
Nor hating their enemies—
And I knew that the Christ was there.

Then I walked alone in Galilee,
Where He fed the thousands by the sea,
And taught and wrought in His ministry
Of human brotherhood.

There, did a presence my way attend,
There did I hear the voice of a friend,
Say, "Lo, I am with you to the end,"
And my heart understood—
I knew that the Christ was there.

A Dog's Devotion.

Lovers of dogs will be interested in the story told at an inquest at the London hospital on the body of a man who committed suicide by throwing himself out of a window. In a letter written just before his death he wrote: "My dog Teddy follows me about. He knows things are very bad with me. I do hope he will be taken care of. As I pace up and down my room he walks with me." A witness said that the dog was very fond of his master and always seemed to understand when he was worried and in trouble.

Fur Seals in the Pacific.

The fur seals which make their home on the Pribilof Islands, a barren group in the Bering sea, disappear from the islands at the beginning of the winter, and throughout that season are scattered about the waters of the North Pacific. Some of them never leave the icy seas about Alaska, but others venture as far south as the coast of California. But wherever they may be, when spring comes instinct leads them back to the desolate little islands.

XXIII. ANOTHER SIMPLE TRANSMISSION SET

One of the simplest transmission sets which can be devised for really practical work is that shown in Fig. 53. In this set, the only instruments which are required are as follows:

Vacuum tube with socket.
Variable condenser of 500 mfd.
Telephone transmitter or microphone.

60 volt B battery.
6 volt storage battery (ordinary dry batteries may be used).

2 Fixed condensers of 5000 mfd.
1 Modulation transformer or an old type Ford spark coil.

1 Rheostat.
In addition, you will need some No. 28 B. & S. double covered cotton insulated wire.

No. 26 B. & S. double covered cotton insulated wire.

2 pushboard tubes 3/4 inch in diameter and 2 inches long.

1 pushboard tube 3 inches in diameter and 2 inches long.

A supply of ordinary cotton covered bell wire.

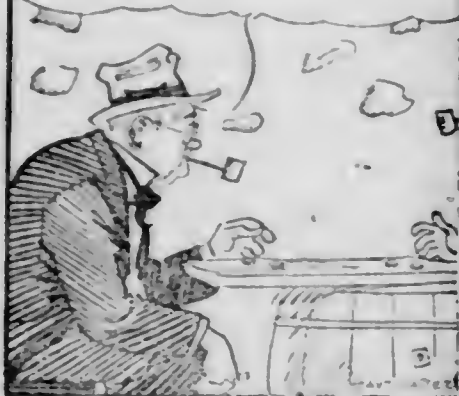

Aerial wire (No. 14), seven-strand phosphor bronze or copper is best, but plain will do.

Also, to secure the best results, use a counterpoise as described under "Aerials."

The diagram shows so plainly how this set is made that no detailed explanation is necessary. The induction coil is merely a single coil made by winding about 50 turns of the No. 26 wire on the pushboard tube 3 inches in diameter. The radio choke-coil L is made by winding a few layers of the No. 28 wire on the pushboard tubes 3/4 inch in diameter and the modulation transformer N may be bought ready-made or an old style Ford spark plug with the buzzer or contact screwed down hard may be used. In setting up be sure the primary coil of the modulation transformer is connected with the phone transmitter O. One great advantage in this set is that there are only two adjustments to be made, the rheostat R, and the variable condenser C. In the diagram, A is the aerial, B the variable condenser, C the induction coil or helix, D the ground, E fixed condenser, F tube plate, G grid, H rheostat, I B volt battery, J 60 volt battery, K fixed condenser, L radio choke, M grid leak, N modulation transformer, O phone transmitter.

CALOMEL GOOD BUT TREACHEROUS

Next Dose May Salivate, Shock Liver or Attack Your Bones

You know what calomel is. It's mercury; quicksilver. Calomel is dangerous. It crushes into your bile like dynamite, cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into your system.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic for a few cents, which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

Don't take calomel! It makes you sick the next day; it loses you today's work. Dodson's Liver Tonic straightens you right up and you feel great. No salts necessary. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and cannot salivate.

Stradivarius was born in 1644 and died in 1737. He worked until he was over ninety years of age and turned out a large number of violins and violoncellos. Altogether, according to estimates, about one thousand violins and about three hundred other instruments are attributed to him. These other instruments include different kinds of viols, some bass viols and also some lutes, guitars and mandolins, very exquisitely wrought. The label in a genuine Stradivarius instrument is supposed to have been made of paper. Only an expert can distinguish a genuine instrument.

Forty Taylor county farmers have entered their poultry flocks in the winter egg laying project being conducted over the state by the extension division of the College of Agriculture at Lexington, according to County Agent J. They will follow recommended practices during the next five months in order to find out for themselves whether or not hens will lay more eggs during the winter if they are fed the right kind of feeds and given good care.

Close to 300 Fayette county farmers and their wives this last summer learned the method of distinguishing between the good and poor layers in their flocks by attending poultry culling demonstrations held by County Agent W.
